Annual Report

ANNUAL REPORT - 2018

For 100 years, the South Florida Council, BSA has prepared youth for a life of leadership, adventure, learning, and service. Our local Council impacts more than 40,000 local youth through the efforts of more than 2,900 trained volunteers who share their time, talent, and resources. Under the leadership of a volunteer board made up of top business and community leaders, the South Florida Council exceeds standards for non-profits in programmatic and financial strength.

COUNCIL FACILITIES

Scouting comes alive when young people experience the adventure of camping in the great outdoors. The South Florida Council owns and operates three camping facilities.

Camp Elmore, in Davie, a 117-acre camp providing weekend and summer programs for more than 8,000 Scouts and families annually.

Tatham Scout Center, in Miami Lakes, is home to the Council's training and conference center, retail Scout Shop, and administrative offices.

Camp Everglades, Everglades National Park, Homestead, is a 230-acre tropical preserve providing a rustic setting for camping and training sessions for Scout groups.

Camp Sawyer, Edward B. Knight Scout Reservation, the Florida Keys, is a 9-acre ocean front facility flanked between the Gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic Ocean on Scout Key and offers camping and aquatic activities for more than 3,500 Scouts and families annually.
