2023 AT A GLANCE – ANNUAL REPORT

For over 110 years, the Boy Scouts of America has prepared youth for a life of leadership, adventure, learning, and service. Our local South Florida Council impacts more than 10,000 local youth through the efforts of nearly 1,400 trained volunteers who share their time, talent, and resources. Under the leadership of a volunteer board made up of top business and community leaders, the South Florida Council exceeds standards for non-profits in programmatic and financial strength. 2021 grew in youth served by over 50% and ended with a modest financial surplus.

SOUTH FLORIDA COUNCIL: BY THE NUMBERS

AREA OF IMPACT

We proudly serve young men and young women in the South Florida counties of Broward, Miami-Dade, and Monroe.

COUNCIL FACILITIES

Scouting comes alive when young people experience the adventure of camping in the great outdoors. The South Florida Council owns and operates three camping facilities.

Camp Elmore, in Davie, a 117-acre camp providing weekend and summer programs for more than 8,000 Scouts and families annually.

Tatham Scout Service Center, in Miami Lakes, is home to the Council's training and conference center, retail Scout Shop, and administrative offices.

Camp Everglades, Everglades National Park, Homestead, is a 217-acre tropical preserve providing a rustic setting for camping and training sessions for Scout groups.

Camp Sawyer, Edward B. Knight Scout Reservation, the Florida Keys, is a 9-acre ocean front facility flanked between the Florida Bay and the Atlantic Ocean on Scout Key and offers camping and aquatic activities for more than 3,500 Scouts and families annually.
